ABOUT GEORGETOWN
Interesting Happenings in the Western Section of the City.

The Water Service Arousing Considerable Complaint—The Linticum Students' Successful Performance.

The water service here is arousing considerable complaint again. Citizens on the heights yesterday entered formal complaint at the District engineer's office. It is claimed that the water in the West Washington reservoir varies in height from two to eight feet. One day there is an ample force, the next such a scarcity that no water can be gotten into the second story of the residences about. Capt. Burr investigated the citizens' complaint and found that there was a considerable variation. He will start at once to employ means to regulate the supply. It was suggested that the West End main be connected with the system of pipes that supply the Tenleytown residents, but such a connection, it is thought, would create too great a pressure in the pipes, and there would be a widespread disaster to the plumbing fixtures. There is a way, though, which the engineer department becomes cognizant of an overquantity of water in the reservoir, but low quantity, it appears, does not readily show itself and ask for attention.

The Linticum Students.
In Institute Hall last night the Linticum Students gave their thirty-ninth performance. The entertainment was the most successful of their career. The short plays of the style presented usually by the company of the late Rosina Vokes were presented, with thoroughness as to every detail. Two of them, "The Race Ball" and "A Cup of Tea," had never been given before, as far as known, in Washington, while the third bright skit, "The Nettle," was brand new to those west of the creek.

Miss Helen Prentiss Donohue made her first appearance in Georgetown with the Students last night in "A Cup of Tea," and her natural manner and general cleverness in the part of the character, Miss Blanche Pulz's work in "The Nettle" was one of the hits of the evening. The parts in "A Cup of Tea" were cast as follows: "The Nettle" was by Miss Anna Craig Hill of the Philharmonic Quartet, who sang "The Sea Has Its Pearls"; Mr. Geo. O'Hara, the comic singer; Mr. Maitland Wright, bass; Miss Mary Dashiell, pianist; Mr. C. E. McElderry and Mr. E. S. Hay Donohue has severed her connection with the Edwin Baker Dramatic Company, and will hereafter be prominent in the Linticum ranks.

To Celebrate Washington's Birthday.
The present board of lady managers of the Baptist Home, on N street, has issued an invitation to all ex-managers of the home to join in a reunion and reception on Washington's birthday, from 5 to 9 o'clock p.m. Choice literary and musical selections will be rendered. The pastors of the various Baptist churches of the city will be present. The secretary of the board of lady managers, Mrs. Sarah Philip, is now temporary matron of the home.

A Premature Report.
The report of the sale of the Georgetown and Tenleytown railroad is premature, according to the statement of the directors of the corporation to a Star reporter today. He said that negotiations were pending, but their outcome would not be definitely determined for some time.

Washington Lodge.
Martha Washington Lodge, No. 3, D. of R., had a big meeting last night, in which the initiatory degree was conferred. The occasion was particularly interesting from the fact that handsome new paraphernalia was used for the first time. The costumes cost nearly $400, and were made expressly for the lodge. The ceremony was held last night were conducted by the regular officers of the West Washington order.

Notes.

Wm. H. Manogue yesterday sold to Brainerd H. Warner part of the Acton, Georgetown, and C. H. Pickling sold to B. H. Warner an undivided one-third interest in part of square 127.

Mr. James B. Philip of this place, an ex-president of the Unity Literary Club, will tell the members of the organization and their friends on the 27th instant what he knows of the Catskill mountains.

Mr. John P. Donaldson, of Dorsey, Dorsey Donaldson of Alexandria country, well known here, died yesterday. He will be buried on Friday from Mt. Olivet Church, Alexandria country.
